(8) IMPORTANT NOTICE! READ THIS BEFORE YOU SIGN:

A.R.S. 25-812(F) requires that, before you voluntarily acknowledge paternity, you be notified of your alternatives, the legal consequences, and your rights and responsibilities. Consult an attorney if you are unsure of your rights and responsibilities. Here are some things you should know:

- * No one is required to voluntarily acknowledge paternity,
- * You have the right to seek legal advice before signing this document, and
- * If you are unsure who the father is, you may have genetic testing done instead of signing this Acknowledgement.

After you agree to voluntarily acknowledge paternity, the Clerk of Court will issue an order legally establishing the father. This order is the same as a judgment of the Superior Court. This order does not decide issues about custody, child support, and parenting time. However, after the order is issued, both parents will have all the rights and responsibilities of parents as required under Arizona law, including the right to seek orders on custody, child support, and parenting time. A.R.S. 25-803(D) provides that the parent with whom the child has resided for the greater part of the last six months will have legal custody unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Arizona law allows either parent to rescind the acknowledgment of paternity if certain requirements are met. You may have up to 60 days to do this. See A.R.S. 25-812(H) and A.R.S. Title 25, Chapter 6, Article 1.
